

EXPLORE GLOBAL FOOD & DEVELOPMENT

ISSUES

EEP 260

World Food, Population & Poverty Issues

3 Credits

Fall Semester

No Prerequisites

EXPLORE critical GLOBAL ISSUES that link the futures of LATIN AMERICA, AFRICA, ASIA & the UNITED STATES

- Are FAMINES inevitable or can third world nations increase their FOOD PRODUCTION?
- Can the POPULATION EXPLOSION be controlled?
- Can MALNUTRITION be eliminated & HEALTH improved?
- Will development destroy the ENVIRONMENT?
- Do U.S. TRADE POLICIES increase or decrease employment in the U.S. and the third world?
- Is more FOREIGN AID the answer?
- How can POVERTY in the third world and the U.S. be reduced?

JOIN IN interesting CLASS DISCUSSIONS & LECTURES, supplemented by third world VIDEOS that provide a human perspective.

READ insightful MAGAZINE & NEWSPAPER articles presenting OPPOSING VIEWS

FOLLOW the NEWS about a third world country on the INTERNET

FOR EXTRA CREDIT

- INTERVIEW a student from a third world country
- READ a third world NOVEL

For more information contact:

EEP 260 Instructor
Dr. Richard Bernsten, 517-648-4378

Ruthi Bloomfield, Advisor, 432-5298