

ESA/EEP 460

Natural Resource Economics

3 Credits

Spring Semester

Prerequisites: EC 201, ESA 302 or
EEP 255

- LEARN how economics can explain land use decision.
- EXAMINE how market forces can improve fisheries and prevent deforestation.
- INVESTIGATE the impact of natural resource policy on private resource use.
- DISCUSS how a sustainable economy protects natural resources and provides a decent living.
- KNOW how to use economics to analyze natural resource problems.

For more information contact:

ESA/EEP 460 Instructor
Dr. Richard Horan, 355-1301

Ruthi Bloomfield, Advisor, 432-5298